GENERAL.....45

YOU are the Union!

A few “DO’S and DON’TS” calculated to test the sincerity of WE who are the Union:

DO Study the Constitution.

DO Study the By-Laws.

DO Study the Agreement.

DO Attend as many meetings as possible.

DO Get acquainted with the Steward in your Department.

DO Learn the difference between a legitimate grievance and a complaint, whether such be frivolous or well founded.

DO Memorize the Order of Business and follow it when at-tending meetings (when in doubt, ask the guidance of the Chair).

DO Think before WE vote!

DON’T Say “Why doesn’t the Union.” instead of “Why don’t WE...?”

DON’T Stay away from meetings and gripe about “unwise” decisions afterwards.

DON’T Go “over the head” of YOUR Steward.

DON’T Think that if things are not to OUR liking there isn’t anything, WE as individuals can do about it.

DON’T Believe the Union is not vitally important to US.

Next to YOUR home and family, the Union is the most important interest.

DON’T Hesitate to bring to the attention of the meeting

YOUR problems; they are the Union’s problems too.

DON’T Leave this booklet at home - carry it at all times.

PREAMBLE

Section 1

These By-Laws are designed to give proper balance to the Administration of the Local Union.

Duties and responsibilities of elected officers and members of committees should be as widely dispersed as possible. It should not be left to the willing few to have to serve in multiple capacities. In other words, duties should be shared by the many rather than the few. While various committees have been designated as "Standing" Committees, this does not preclude the possibility of special committees being established from time to time as may be required and necessary. In order to improve and maintain the social and colour, race or creed, to promote efficiency in Public Employment and to give clear evidence of its recognition of the unity of organized Labour, this Local has been formed and does now establish these By-Laws for its government.

Words importing the singular number, or the masculine gender shall, unless the context otherwise requires, include the plural or the feminine gender as the case may be and vice versa.

The name of this Local shall be: Canadian Union of Public Employees Local No. 2 (Toronto Transit Commission Electrical).

PRINCIPLES & OBJECTIVES

Section 2

To place the various occupations of the membership upon a high plane of Efficiency and skill.

To encourage the settlement of all disputes between the members and the employer's administration by mediation and arbitration.

To secure adequate remuneration for work performed.

To reduce the hours of labour and by all legal and proper means to elevate the moral, intellectual and social conditions of all workers in general and of the membership in particular

To support the Canadian Union of Public Employees in its objectives as set out in the C.U.P.E. National Constitution.

EQUALITY STATEMENT

Section 3

Union solidarity is based on the principle that union members are equal and deserve mutual respect at all levels. Any behavior that creates conflict prevents us from working together to strengthen our union.

As unionists, mutual respect, cooperation and understanding are our goals. We should neither condone nor tolerate behavior that undermines the dignity or self-esteem of any individual or creates an intimidating, hostile or offensive environment.

Discriminatory speech or conduct which is racist, sexist, transphobic or homophobic hurts and thereby divides us. So too, does discrimination on the basis of ability, age, class, religion and ethnic origin.

Sometimes discrimination takes the form of harassment. Harassment means using real or perceived power to abuse, devalue or humiliate. Harassment should not be treated as a joke. The uneasiness and resentment that it creates are not feelings that help us grow as a union.

Discrimination and harassment focus on characteristics that make us different; and they reduce our capacity to work together on shared concerns such as decent wages, safe working conditions, and justice in the workplace, society and in our union.

CUPE's policies and practices must reflect our commitment to equality. Members, staff and elected officers must be mindful that all sisters and brothers deserve dignity, equality and respect.

RULES OF ORDER

Section 32

The President, or in his absence, the Vice-President, shall take the chair at any time specified at all regular and special meetings. In the absence of both President and Vice-President, the Recording- Secretary shall act as President, and in his absence a President pro-tem shall be chosen by the Local.

The President shall state every question coming before the Local, and before allowing debate there-on, and immediately before putting it to a vote, shall ask: "Is the Local ready for the question?" Should no member rise to speak, and the Local indicate readiness, the question shall then be put. After the President has risen no member shall be permitted to speak upon the question.

A motion to be entertained by the presiding Officer must be seconded, and the mover as well as the seconder must rise and be recognized by the chair.

A motion to amend, or to amend an amendment, shall be in order, but no motion to amend an amendment to an amendment shall be permitted. No amendment or amendment to an amendment which is a direct negative of the resolution shall be in order.

On motion, the regular order of business may be suspended by a two-thirds vote of those present, to deal with any urgent business.

All resolutions and motions other than those named in Rule 17, or those to accept or adopt the report of a committee, shall, if requested by the presiding officer, be presented in writing before being put to the Local.

At the request of any member, and upon a majority vote of those present, a question may be divided when the sense will admit of it.

Any member having a motion can withdraw it with consent of the seconder, but a motion once debated cannot be withdrawn except by a majority vote of those present.

When a member desires to speak on a question or offer a motion, he shall rise in his place and respectfully address the presiding officer; but he shall not proceed further until recognized by the chair, except to state that he rises to a point of order or on a question of privilege.

When two or more members rise to speak at the same time, the presiding officer shall decide which one is entitled to the floor.

Every member, while speaking, shall adhere to the question under debate and avoid all personal, indecorous, or offensive language, as well as any re-flection on the Local or any member thereof.

If a member, while speaking is called to order, he shall cease speaking until the point is determined, when (if decided in-order), he may again proceed.

No sectarian discussion (that is to say, religious discussion) shall be permitted in the meeting at any time.

No member, except the Chairman of a committee or the mover or seconder of a resolution, shall speak more than five minutes at any one time or more than once on the same question, until all members wishing to speakers have had an opportunity to do so, when he may be allowed, (by permission of the chair), to speak a second time.

The President shall take no part in debate while presiding but may yield the chair to Vice-President in order to speak on any question before the Local, or to introduce a new question.

The presiding officer shall have the same rights as other members to vote on any question. In case of a tie, he may give a casting vote, or, (if he chooses), refrain from voting, in which case the motion does not prevail and the decision is in the negative.

When a question has been put, no motion shall be in order except (1) to adjourn; (2) the previous question; (3) to lay on the table; (4) to postpone for a definite time; (5) to refer; (6) to divide or amend, which motions shall have precedence in the order named. The first three of these shall be decided without debate.

A motion for the previous question, when regularly moved and seconded, shall be put in this form: "Shall the main question be put?" If it is adopted, the President shall proceed to take the vote on the resolution and amendment there to (if any) according to their priority. If an amendment or an amended amendment, shall be put to the Local.

A motion to adjourn is in order except (1) when a member has the floor, and (2) when members are voting.

A motion to adjourn having been put and lost shall not be in order again if there is further business before the Local, until fifteen minutes have elapsed.

Before the presiding officer declares the vote on a question, or after a vote has been declared lost or carried by acclamation, and before the Local proceeds to another order of business, any member may ask for a division. A standing vote shall then be taken and the Secretary shall count same.

If any member shall feel himself personally aggrieved by the decision of the chair, he may appeal to the Local from such decision.

When the decision of the President is appealed, he shall state his decision and the reasons thereof, from the chair. The party appealing shall state briefly the reason for the appeal, after which (without further debate) the question shall be put thus: "Shall the decision of the chair stand of the Local?" It shall require a majority vote to sustain such appeal.

After a question has been decided, any two members who have voted in the majority may at the same or the next meeting move reconsideration thereof.

No member shall enter or leave a meeting during the reading of the minutes, the initiation of new members, the installation of officers, or the taking of a vote; and no member shall be allowed to leave without permission from the President (unless they are officially on duty for the Commission on afternoon shift); otherwise, their name will be withdrawn from the sign-in-roll.

All business done in the Local shall be strictly secret to all outside the Local.

All rules and proceedings of debate not herein provided for shall be defined in the Constitution of the Canadian Union of Public employees.

Any member late more than thirty minutes for a meeting (special or general), must have the permission of the membership attending to enter the meeting.
